Dress Code Changes

The following dress code change has been approved at the national and regional levels for DanceSport competitors.

Effective September 1st, 2008.

Male Junior level dancers may wear a vest (with white shirt, tie & slacks as per IDSF table) instead of a tail suit starting in silver up to and including Championship level even if the girl is wearing a ballgown. This change was instituted to fall in line with IDSF and to reduce costs for parents who do not want to pay for a boy's tail suit when the boy is likely to be growing quickly.
